Living area White resin flooring flows seamlessly throughout the apartment. 'It looks fluid – almost like spilled milk – and it means that all the rooms work together,' says homeowner Jerker. Visit www.ferfa.org.uk for a resin floor specialist in your area. Mis-matched chairs – one each by Verner Panton, Charles and Ray Eames (both available at Vitra), Ross Lovegrove (at Aram) and Eero Saarinen (at Knoll) – sit around an Ikea dining table, unified by their white colour. The curvy hanging shape of the 'Arco' floor light by Achille and Pier Giacomo Castiglioni for Flos is echoed by the 'Bubble Chair' by Eero Aarnio for Adelta. The colourful 'Swirl' painting is by Stockholm-based artist Matthias van Arkel ➔
